Do not use abbreviations or terms of common understanding. Be sure to give the causes of death clearly and legibly. Physicians: please write the cause of death in such terms as will indicate the disease originating the fatal train of morbid processes, and not the mode of dying, such as heart failure, asphyxia, anemia, etc. Be sure to fill in the time interval between the onset of each and death. Operations should be stated only when performed for some condition affecting the cause of death. Statements of duration of residence and of age are required. Even approximate statements are accepted when definite statements cannot be obtained. Infant deaths should be reported with the same care as deaths of persons of mature age. Stillbirths should be reported to the Bureau of Vital Statistics, but not recorded as deaths. Fetal dea
